BY-LAWS AND RULES FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

- I. The Managers shall meet on the second Tuesday of each month, at such time and place as they shall appoint.
- II. Seven of the Managers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business—except the election of Managers.
- III. Every meeting shall be opened with reading a portion of Scripture, succeeded by a prayer.
- IV. All reports of committees shall be in writing.
- V. The President shall call extra meetings when she may think proper, or when three members unite in a request for that purpose.
- VI. The business of each stated meeting shall commence with calling the roll, followed by the Secretary reading the minutes of the preceding meeting, the Treasurer's report, and the reports of committees, which, if not presented, must be asked for by the presiding officer. The unfinished business shall then be called up, and any new business brought forward. The weekly committees for the ensuing month shall be named, and the orders on the Treasurer voted.
- VII. After the annual meeting the standing committees shall be appointed, viz., The weekly committees for the year, which shall be inserted by the Secretary in the minute-book of the Committee; the Purchasing Committee; the Committee for Receiving Applications for Admission; the Committee on Accounts, and such other committees as may be required.
- VIII. The Visiting Committee shall visit the Home not less than twice during the week; they shall endeavor to be present at one of the meals, shall make themselves acquainted with the situation and wants of the inmates generally, direct the concerns of the family, and report their observations in a minute-book kept for the purpose, which book shall be passed over to the members of the succeeding committee.

IX. The Purchasing Committee shall keep a cash-book, in which all receipts and expenditures shall be entered, a report of which in detail must be submitted to the Board monthly at its stated meeting. They shall estimate the amount needed for the month, and present the same to the Board for an appropriation, to be drawn from the Treasurer as required.

X. The Committee on Religious Services shall consist of ten or more members, two of whom shall be appointed monthly, whose duty shall be to see that the Home is duly supplied with the preaching of the Gospel, and who shall have a general supervision of the religious services.

The committee shall have the Home supplied with preaching once or twice on the Sabbath-day, also once on week evenings or oftener, as circumstances will permit.

The committee shall give verbal instructions to the Matron how to act in relation to this subject in the absence of the committee.

XI. A standing Committee on Printing shall be appointed by the Society, to whom all matter requisite to be printed shall be referred.

COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS.

The Board shall appoint five of their number to receive applicants for admission.

They shall inquire into the character and circumstances of those making application, see that they have the necessary certificates from their pastor or session, are able to pay their own board, or provide some responsible persons who will pay it for them, or will pay one hundred and fifty dollars admission fee.

They shall require each applicant to sign a paper, pledging herself to abide by the rules of the Home.

The committee shall then refer the case to the Board, which shall, in all cases, reserve the right to decide upon the admission of applicants.

THE MATRON.

The Matron, under the direction of the Board, shall have charge of the house, shall enforce the rules of the Managers, prescribe the hours of meals, be present at, and ask a blessing upon them.

She shall keep a book, which shall contain a list of the furniture, linen, etc., belonging to the Home; also presents made to the inmates or the institution, and the names of the donors.

She shall render a monthly account to the Treasurer of all money entrusted to and expended by her.

She shall grant all leave of absence, inquire where the inmate intends staying, and the probable length of her visit.

She shall make out a requisition of the needed supplies, and submit the same to the Purchasing Committee.

INMATES.

Applicants for admission must be residents of the State of Pennsylvania; have been members of the Presbyterian Church, in some one of its branches, for three years, and bring satisfactory proof of this by letter from their pastor or session.

They must pay the sum of $150, or sign an agreement to pay $3 per week, or provide some responsible person to sign such agreement for them; they must also sign a paper binding themselves to submit to the Matron, and abide by the rules of the house.

Those who have any property are required to secure the same to the institution before they are admitted; in case of obtaining property after their admission, if they remain in the Home, it will also be necessary to make it over to the institution.

ANNUAL REPORT.

IN presenting to the friends of the "Presbyterian Home" our Fourth Annual Report, we are reminded that another year of our history as a society has drawn to a close—a year marked in many respects with signal evidences of the Divine favor. The inauguration of such an enterprise in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia was a new and untried field of labor for willing hearts and hands. Immediately after the opening of the Home, on the 29th of October, 1874, twenty-five old ladies were admitted, and in a short time everything about the establishment was in complete working order. But a debt of $15,000 still rested upon our beautiful building. After due deliberation on the part of the Board of Managers, it was determined to hold a fair, and endeavor to realize the needed sum. Horticultural Hall was engaged for the first week in March. Each Manager had her own table, which, with the assistance of her church friends and others, was filled with exquisite fancy articles of every description. Monday evening, March 1st, will long be remembered in this city. The ladies, with their aids, had been busily occupied the entire day in decorating and arranging their tables. At seven o'clock P.M. the doors of the Hall were opened to admit the crowd to the most beautiful Fair and Festival ever held in Philadelphia. No raffling was allowed, and no goods were taken on commission. Every article was marked at a price below its intrinsic value, and in fact the enterprise, from first to last, was conducted on the highest Christian principles. The restaurant in the basement was equally attractive; every delicacy that could tempt the appetite was provided with a liberal profusion, and at prices to meet the wishes of all. A newspaper prepared for the occasion, called "The Presbyterian Home Journal," realized in six days the sum of $1050. After all expenses, the net proceeds amounted to $675. Not the least pleasing feature of the Fair was the fact that the occasion was a delightful reunion of all the churches within the Presbyteries of this great city. As the result, after the payment of all expenses, the net proceeds amounted to the sum of $21,391, $15,000 of which was at once appropriated to the payment of the debt on the building, and $6,000 which had been borrowed from the Endowment Fund was returned.

In the various arrangements for the prosperity of the Home, the Managers have realized that they were the almoners of the gifts of others, and hence have endeavored to exercise a wise and judicious economy in the expenditure of the funds.

The 29th of October was the occasion of our first anniversary. A large number of persons availed themselves of this opportunity for visiting the Home, and accepting its hospitality by partaking of an inviting collation prepared in the large and beautiful dining-room of the house. The exercises consisted of brief addresses by four prominent clergymen, singing of familiar hymns, &c., and great interest was manifested by the visitors while inspecting the various rooms. All expressed themselves highly pleased with the management of the institution, and the comfortable surroundings of the inmates.

It gives us great pleasure to avail ourselves of this opportunity of returning thanks to our numerous friends in the different churches for their liberal response to the calls made upon them in behalf of the Home. We desire also to make special reference to the faithful and efficient services of the visiting physician, Dr. Hoopes, whose ministrations have been entirely those of a labor of love. The thanks of the Board are eminently due to those clergymen and ladies and gentlemen who have from time to time ministered to the spiritual wants of the household. The fidelity and efficiency of the Matron, Miss Julia A. Rummel, also merits our approval and commendation.

During the year death has visited the Home, and removed from our midst Miss Mary Dyer and Miss Agnes Ramsey, whose last hours were soothed by kindly attentions from Christian hearts, and we trust the dark valley lighted by the presence of Him who has said, "I am the resurrection and the life." Their remains were interred in Mount Moriah Cemetery, where, by the liberality of Mrs. Connell, a lot has been provided for the sepulchre of our inmates.

Recognizing the value of industry, the members of our family, when not prevented by sickness or infirmities, are employed in sewing or knitting for the benefit of the Home, as well as rendering assistance to the Matron when desired.

A fact of paramount importance which we wish to correct is the erroneous impression prevailing concerning the financial condition of the Home. We are entirely dependent upon the contributions and subscriptions of our churches to meet the weekly expenses. The admission fees properly belong to the endowment fund, and should not be used for current expenses, so that we are compelled to make an earnest appeal to the churches to assist us in the emergency. The house will comfortably accommodate eighty-seven persons. We have now forty-eight inmates, and are utterly prevented by want of means from receiving more at present. We are constantly entreated by those in the most needy circumstances, whose declining years and increasing infirmities plead with an eloquence calculated to impress the coldest hearts; and yet we dare not listen to their cries. Trusting that these facts need only to be understood to meet with a generous and prompt response from the Presbyterian Christians of the State of Pennsylvania, and with the earnest prayer that God will continue to bless our Home, we gratefully submit this our Annual Report.

Treasurer.

The undersigned has examined the above (Treasurer's account), compared it with the vouchers, and found it correct, the balance in bauk being the sum of forty-four hundred and seventy $\frac{57}{100}$ dollars.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 21, 1875.

SAMUEL FIELD.

The Treasurer desires to call attention to the fact that while the balance on hand appears to be large, this amount, together with much that has been already expended, is from entrance fees, which properly belong to the Endowment Fund, which we are not authorized to use for current expenses.
